

RUSSIA IN THE ARCTIC DIALOGUE
ARKHANGELSK 2019

International PhD School
“Russia in the Arctic Dialogue: Local and Global Context”

5-11 April 2019, Arkhangelsk

Second Announcement Letter

Northern Arctic Federal University (NARFU, Arkhangelsk, North-West Russia) is pleased to announce the International PhD School “Russia in the Arctic Dialogue: Local and Global Context” to be held as a side event of the V International Arctic Forum “Arctic: the Territory of Dialogue” on 5-11 April, 2019.

Since 2011 the International Forum “Arctic: the Territory of Dialogue” has served as the key arena in Russia for addressing the issues of the Arctic exploration and its sustainable development in the national and global context. The Forum is organized biannually under the auspices of the RF Government and attracts presidents, high officials, diplomats, experts and scholars from all over the world. On April 9-10, 2019 Northern Arctic Federal University will host the event for the third time. You will find more information about the forum here <http://forumarctica.ru/en/>.

Over the last decades the Arctic is on the top of the agenda for world political leaders, business, public and academia due to new emerging opportunities effecting economic, political and social dynamics in local communities and globally. All stakeholders emphasize that the dialogue and international collaboration in the region is crucial for ensuring its sustainable development and people well-being.

The aim of the International PhD School “Russia in the Arctic Dialogue: Local and Global Context” is to provide young researchers from Arctic and non-Arctic countries with the knowledge about the Russian Arctic Strategy and large-scale projects and facilitate international collaboration in studying and discussing contemporary issues of the Arctic region in global context. Russian and foreign high officials and speakers of the International Forum are invited for keynote lectures and discussions.

The School participants will discuss a vast scope of current issues of the Arctic: northern governance and economies, environmental challenges, Arctic law, life of the local communities, human adaptation, international cooperation in the Arctic.
