Professor Miroslav HAVRLANT (70)

Prof. RNDr Miroslav HAVRLANT, CSc
born 5 March, 1925 - Rychvald near Ostrava

Prof. M. HAVRLANT, the many years standing pedagogist at the Department of Social Geography and Regional Development, Faculty of Natural Sciences, University of Ostrava, celebrated his 70th life anniversary this Spring - full of energy and creative enthusiasm. Prof. HAVRLANT is a renowned personality not only for Moravian geography. His works are devoted also to biogeography, regional geography, environment, travelling and recreational activities with major attention being paid to the problems of Ostrava conurbation and its background with the pronounced anthropogenic relief. He played an important role at establishing the Brno branch office of the Institute of Geonics, Czech Academy of Sciences, Ostrava - ie. indirectly at publishing this periodical.

Professor Jaromír DEMEK (65)

Prof. RNDr Jaromír DEMEK, DrSc
born 14 August, 1930 - Sokolnice near Brno

Prof. J. DEMEK, since 1987 the Head of the Department of Geography and Didactics of Geography at the Faculty of Natural Sciences, Palacký University in Olomouc, celebrated his 65th life anniversary in Mid-August 1995 with the feeling of full freshness and perseverant creative enthusiasm. The well-known physical geographer is engaged mainly in geomorphology, research of landscape and environment, theory of geography and regional geography. He has played an irreplaceable role in the development and profiling of Czech and Czechoslovak geography in more than the last thirty years, particularly so as a managing director of Geographical Institute, Czechoslovak Academy of Sciences, in 1963-1978.

We thank the both popular experts for their hitherto collaboration, wishing them good health, peaceful family life and enough creative energy for further success at their work.
